

froehlich

MANAGEMENT

vita henry mason

DIRECTOR

Henry Mason's career began about 10 years ago when he started shooting online content when no one really knew what it was. This turned into integrated 360 campaign's for brands like Nike, and continued with TV commercials, and TV series for the BBC and C4.

He shoots all over the world, with a strong creative presence in Ireland, Australia and France, with a recent resurgence in the UK having just shot McDonald's flagship film for the BigMac's 50th Birthday.

2017 year Henry won Silver at The One Show Shanghai - for a film portraying a young girl in China growing up with a cleft lip, called 'Operation Smile,' and Silver at the Shark Awards Kinsale for his Christmas film about Irish family life for the Irish brand Supervalu.

His credits include - McDonald's, Nescafe, OperationSmile, Medicine Francaise Cardiologie, Milo, Lidl, Head, Mercedes, Nike, Honda.

He was born in London and is an alumnus of the Royal Ballet School, Wells Cathedral Music School, and the University of Exeter.